

DJIA HITS RECORD

-Market Minute-

Stocks closed at all time highs Friday with the venerable Dow Jones Industrial Average hitting its 9th record high of the year. Both the DJIA and S&P 500 achieved all time marks closing at 16,947.08 and 1,962.87 respectively. The market's advance was broad-based as investors fortunes were buoyed by large gains in the energy sector, which was up 15.26% in the past quarter. As of Friday, the following sectors closed at record highs: Energy, Materials, Health Care and Utilities. Investors voted with their pocketbooks to Chairwoman Yellen's comments about the economy and the FED's continued unabated stimulus program. Energy has been lifted higher by anxiousness surrounding developments in Iraq. Summertime is here again and it's been all fun in the sun.
